FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

If you can learn how to drive a car, you can learn how to speak!

Ignition is a newly launched book by business coach and leadership consultant, Dineshrie Pillay, that takes you on a journey to unleash the speaker within you. You will learn how to overcome your fear of speaking, regain your confidence, and use the power of words to influence, impact, and inspire those around you.

Pillay, who is a Durban-born author, now residing in Sandton, Johannesburg, used the time of lockdown to complete this 341-page book. Ignition: 3 Steps to drive from Newbie Presenter to Expert Speaker is available on Amazon Kindle and Amazon Print on Demand. The book retails for R425, incl VAT and if you are in SA, you can order a signed copy of the book directly from Pillay's website that will be couriered directly to you. Order your copy of the book by using this link: <https://dineshriepillay.com/product/ignition/>. In this book, you will find a step-by-step approach to transition from a newbie presenter to an advanced or expert speaker. You will find detailed exercises, illustrations and action steps for every stage of your speaking journey.

In the words of Pillay, "I believe that speaking is an art that can be learned, not a privilege afforded to an elite few. We are all entitled to use our voices to become agents of change in our personal lives, careers and societies. The key to achieving this is to believe that, within you, is a speaker waiting to be ignited.

Pillay is a qualified CA(SA), FCMA, Distinguished Toastmaster and Associate Coach registered with the International Coach Federation. Being technically trained, Pillay realized early on in her own career the importance of communication, presentations and the art of persuasion. She combines her experience, qualifications and her gift of teaching to create this powerful go-to guide to help you to ignite the speaker within you.

Pillay's book has been reviewed by 12 people from all around the world. Mark Brown, CSP and World Champion of Public Speaking had this to say about the book, "Ignition' is highly detailed and precise, and it contains activities, exercises, charts, graphs, and photographs, to give readers a clear understanding of every principle that Dineshrie teaches. 'Ignition' the 'go-to' resource for anyone who wants to achieve the highest levels of presentation proficiency."
