

Critical Thinking and the Changing of Destiny

How 'amaBhungane' Investigative Journalists Exposed State Capture

'Digging dung. Fertilising democracy' is how award winning amaBhungane investigative journalists hold power to account!

Since critical thinking should be the hallmark of higher education, prepare to be informed and intrigued at what promises to be an enlightening presentation on critical thinking and the exposure of stories that are in the public interest.

DATE: Monday, 23 April 2018

TIME: 17h00 for 17h30

VENUE: Murray Lecture Theatre, (Centenary Building, opposite the Elizabeth Sneddon Theatre entrance) Howard College Campus, Durban

SPEAKER: Sam Sole (amaBhungane co-founder and Managing Partner)

RSVP (essential): By Wednesday, 18 April 2018 to Sphamandla Nqayi on 031 260 2778 or email: nqayis@ukzn.ac.za

UNIVERSITY OF
KWAZULU-NATAL
INYUVESI
YAKWAZULU-NATALI

INSPIRING GREATNESS