

Project Opportunity

Team Leader / Project Manager

Project Description

This project's goal is to build and implement industrial units. These units must be aligned with existing studies, plans and implementation frames. It will promote economic development, improve employment rates and investment in innovation. These units will stimulate re-industrialization and create long-term jobs.

Role

- Project leadership
- Project Management
- Reporting and Compliance
- Stakeholder management
- Responsible for all key project deliverables
- Promote Industrial Units to investors, both national and international
- Ensure alignment of the project development to stated guidelines

Skills and Experience Required

- MBA, Business Degree or Economics Degree
- Project Management
- 10 or more years of professional and business experience

Availability

This role will require you to be available 150 days per year.

Send your application to:

Pedro Ramos at pedro.ramos@leadership-bc.com or to

Maria Froes at maria.froes@leadership-bc.com