WEBINAR INVITATION

CAN SOUTH AFRICA SURVIVE COVID BEYOND 2021?

South Africa has recently moved to lockdown level 1 allowing the economy to open up somewhat. However, in the background there are murmurs of a third wave of Covid-19 anticipated in winter. The first two waves of Covid-19 have negatively impacted the struggling South African economy. Will South Africa survive the third wave?

You are cordially invited to interact with Goolam Ballim as he presents his outlook for the country, businesses and the citizens. Some of the topics he will address include: interrupted trading, restricted trading, business continuity, business expansion, unemployment, rotational employment/short time, peoples ability to service debt on assets, choices between saving and buying assets, impact of Covid-19 on education and higher education and ultimately health - lives vs livelihoods.

Date: Wednesday, 14th April 2021

Time: 09h00 to 10h30 (GMT+2)
